PRIVATE ICE CLIMBING TRIPS

Join us as we explore the exciting glacial ice climbing outside Haines, AK. Our skilled ice climbing guides will help maximize climbing opportunities and can offer guidance to help improve your climbing technique. The glaciers outside Haines are the ideal terrain to practice and hone climbing skills amidst a spectacular alpine backdrop! With access to high quality, fun climbing all spring and summer long, this is a uniquely Alaskan experience. Our low guide to guest ratio allows us the flexibility to accommodate individual goals and expectations. No previous experience is necessary.

Haines: Haines Alaska is the starting/finishing place for this trip. Haines is a small community located along the fjords at the top of the Inside Passage. The natural beauty and wilderness access found here are responsible for Haines' reputation as a center for wilderness adventure in Alaska.

Getting to the glacier: Zodiac boats are used to access the Davidson Glacier. This short 30-minute ride across the Chilkat Inlet is extremely scenic and guests will be outfitted with appropriate gear for the weather and conditions during the ride to keep warm and dry.

The Area: Haines borders Glacier Bay National Park. The Park and the adjacent 27 million acres, including Wrangell-St Elias National Park, comprise the largest protected wilderness area on the planet. It is an extremely jagged, glaciated, mountain landscape. The climbing, trekking, and skiing here are truly world class!

Our Guides: Alaska Mountain Guides & Climbing School Inc. instructors and guides are professionals. They are special individuals who have a passion for being in the mountain environment. They have a wealth of experience from guiding throughout Alaska and the world, and they genuinely enjoy sharing their knowledge. Their skill and positive attitudes help our guests to have the best possible experience during their trip. Your safety and enjoyment are their primary goals.

Length: 3 and 5-day trip itineraries.

Included: Transportation in Haines and to the glacier, all food during the trip, instructors/guides, and all group climbing and camping equipment.
