

Skagway, Alaska

The Alaska Mountain Guides & Climbing School, Inc. Expedition Center is based out of Haines, AK. We also have an office in Skagway, AK for our heli-skiing, Chilkoot Trail, and Yukon river trips. Skagway is a small community located at the top of the inside passage. Surrounded on three sides by steep mountains, our rock climbing adventures take us high up to beautiful views of the surrounding Alaskan wilderness. The following information is to help you with planning your travel arrangements to Skagway.

The easiest way to get to Skagway is to travel from Juneau, the state capital. Alaska Airlines has daily scheduled flights from Seattle; the flight time is about 1.5 hours. From Juneau there are many daily flights with local commuter airlines that make the 40-minute trip to Skagway. The Alaska Marine Highway System also runs from Juneau to Skagway in about 5 hours. There is information below to assist you in making your travel and lodging arrangements. We will generally return in the late afternoon on the last day of the trip. If you have a specific time you need to be back in Skagway, please let us know.
